Equine Assisted Therapy Alaska

Public Disclosure Policy

1. The following documents will be made available to the public through the organization's website:
 - a. Articles of incorporation;
 - b. Bylaws;
 - c. Conflict of interest policy, is included in Bylaws;
 - d. Form 1023 (1024 is not required by EATA); and
 - e. Audited financial statement
 - f. IRS Form 990

Financial information and statements are disclosed to the public on the annual Form 990, no other unaudited reports will be provided, except to the board for decision-making and oversight purposes. EATA believes that it would be unwise to disclose informal financial statements to the public without the advice of an independent accountant or CPA, as the IRS Form 990 has been reviewed for accuracy and transparency, and provides a better overall understanding of EATA's financial stability.

Equine Assisted Therapy Alaska \(EATA\) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, our mission is to enhance physical, psychological, and social wellbeing of Alaskans living with disabilities through therapeutic horsemanship.
